about the sounds

Ambient Kazoo is a playful experiment of a handful of recordings of the plastic noise-making toy we all love and hate: The Kazoo. For this soundset we recorded 22 instances of a Kazoo and from them we made 23 new sounds, using all major techniques available in Omnisphere 2. From granular synthesis and resonators to FM synthesis and impulse generators.

Since our yellow plastic Kazoo wasn't tuned to orchestral standards - we tuned the samples in in each patch by ear. Due to the nature of the Kazoo - the tunings might shift and not always be 100 correct.

But as they say… that's a feature. Not a bug :)

Hope you will have lots of fun with the sounds!
