about the sounds

Originally invented by a Norwegian tribe of Vikings, the Party Horn has long been a musical tool to signal upcoming festivities. The sound of the party horn is instantly recognisable as a) Fun Times Ahead, b) An Enormous Headache Twelve Hours Later.

With this soundset, we've taken the sound of the party horn into the modern age and music production.

We sampled a high-quality party horn with a unique material combination of both plastic and colourful paper. The extraordinary sound of this orchestra-class party horn is perfectly tuned to a C, D#, B and everything in between.

Apart from ten original recordings, we've expanded on the sound by turning them into bagpipe-like drones, sequences and arpeggios and synth-like lead sounds.

The Vikings would be proud.

Happy New Year from us at Plughugger.
May 2016 be a great year.

license agreement

Please read the terms of the following agreement before using this software.

The sounds that came with this agreement are the property of Plughugger, which in turn is the property of Carl Löfgren. The sounds are licensed – not sold – to you, for use in your music productions.

The right to use enclosed sounds is only granted to the original end-user of the product. This right is not transferable – which means you cannot sell these sounds second hand. If the product is sold, yours and the buyers license are no longer valid.

All lending, renting, copying, duplicating, trading or reselling of this product or its contents is naturally not allowed. You may neither upload or download this product or any sounds from it, on the Internet.

You can use the sounds in any type of commercial or private music production without permission or paying any further fees than the original price of the product. You may modify the sounds to your needs. The only restriction is that you must not use the sounds in an isolated manner – for public releases the sound must always be used in a musical context. You are not allowed to create a sample library based on the sounds you purchase from Plughugger.

The sounds provided are licensed "as is" without warranties of any kind. Neither the producer, nor Plughugger can be held responsible for any direct or indirect or consequential loss arising from the use of this product in whatever form.

retro house for omnisphere

With Adventures in Acidland we're exploring the most famous sub-genre of Chicago House: Acid House.

The soundset is complete with pounding sequences and arpeggios, saturated basses and leads, dark and menacing soundscapes, effects and drum sounds.
